Chapter one:

A Faraway Place in Time

Evander On a lovely morning, Jack Wills sat by himself and is quiet on the school bus as other students talked and gasped in wonder. Ailia, his closest friend, is ill and is unable to go to class that day. The bus is initially traveling at a regular speed when it abruptly started to accelerate strangely. Students were in a panic and kept asking Mr. Angus, the driver, what is happening. Evander stepped in as the bus drifted perilously close to a collision. He snapped his fingers to stop Mr. Angus from finishing his thought, and then he used his superpowers to sever the driver's hands. Two new hands developed in their place to replace the missing limbs. The bus then began to tip over as Evander extended the severed hands to the same side of the moving tires.

The terrified Students realized that the bus's back had no tires so Mr. Angus grabbed the steering wheel to prevent himself from collapsing. They ran away out of concern for Mr. Angus, the untiring bus driver who had taken them to school with a tireless bus.

A long time ago...

Vampire ghosts used to prowl the night in the DellHollow realm, a cosmos unseen to anyone else, in search of animal blood. They would expire if their bodies weren't filled with recent animal blood, though, as they became older and weaker. Harold, the leader of the blood-sucking ghosts, set out to find a way to prolong his life since he did not want to perish. When he eventually came across the human race, he learned that he could feed on human blood to grow stronger and live longer.

He came across a street beggar while he is wandering, but since the man is a ghost, he is unable to see him. He is at ease with the breeze blowing into his nostrils, but he quickly became aware that the beggar's perfume is alluring him. Feeling energized and more powerful, he grabbed the beggar by the neck and drained his blood. Although he is ecstatic about his new discovery, he initially felt sorry for the beggar who is lying unmoving. He made every effort to rouse him, but in vain. He eventually came to terms with the beggar's death and vanished to meet his concerned clan, who were looking for him throughout the Dellhollow world without knowing he had left it.

The clan that Harold had left behind is startled and in awe of his newfound strength upon his return to the Dellhollow realm. They quickly questioned him about what had happened because they were so shocked, and he is happy to explain everything to them. Chin described the tale their parents had told them about a ghost who had left the Dellhollow world to drink human blood and had been brutally slaughtered while he talked. They grew enraged and decided to kill Harold and bury his body when Chin, Harold's younger brother, reminded them of the vow they had made to never leave the Dellhollow world to feed on human blood. (Ghosts are not interred in graves the same way as humans are in the Dellhollow universe. Instead, they are buried underground after being imprisoned in a bottle-like receptacle from which they can never escape.

Despite his cries for compassion, they took him and put him in a bottle because they thought he is polluted and might have an impact on the other ghosts. Fay, Harold's son, attempted to prevent the others from catching his father but is unsuccessful. A drop of the human's blood that Harold had sucked spilled on his son Fay as he is being imprisoned in the bottle. Nobody noticed the blood on Fay as he sped off to stop the others from encasing his father in the bottle.

Chin is elected as the new leader following the incident, but Fay is unhappy with how his uncle had treated his father. He is determined to exact retribution for the passing of his father.

Chapter Two

The Tides of Power

The brothers had vowed solemnly to guard their family for the rest of their lives in front of their parents. However, Chin is devastated when Fay disappeared and felt guilty for his brother's departure. Fay, meantime, is driven by a desire for retribution against their uncle. Fay continued to be unaware of Chin's actual emotions, just as he had been unaware of his younger brother's true feelings for his loss.

Fay's Travels

Fay unexpectedly found himself in a strange place while thinking constantly about his dead father. Unaware of its terrible reputation as the Hole of Mystery, from which none emerges unchanged, he immediately dived in when he came upon a gaping hole in the ground while he is walking. He eventually came to rest on firm ground, confused as to where he is. He is startled to hear a voice that seemed strangely familiar, leading him to ask who is speaking. Fay persevered despite not getting a response, only to get the same puzzling explanation. The voice then muttered, "Do you need to know who I am before you recognize my voice?" rhetorically. Fay is confident at that precise instant that it's his deceased father calling to him. Fay's lips split, allowing a murmur to escape. Is that truly you, Father?

When his father's voice suddenly appeared, he is perplexed and unable to understand how it could be possible. Before Fay could respond, the voice asked, "Will you seek revenge for my death?" as his thoughts turned to his father's funeral. The voice warned Fay to consider her options carefully before acting, alleging that Chin is to blame for his death. Fay said, "I know you'll guide me in avenging you, Father," feeling comforted despite his amazement at hearing his father's voice. But how is it that even when you're dead, I can still hear you? "My voice will continue to guide you, son, as long as you haven't exacted revenge on me," the voice retorted. Fay is the chosen one, it continued, and he would find out many secrets in the cave of mystery and assemble his army. Fay's newly discovered skills, according to the voice, are because "You possess human blood now," it declared.

Fay is no longer a ghost, the voice said, but rather a deceased person, just like any other person who had died in the human world. He had turned into a werewolf, nevertheless, as a result of his ancestry. According to the voice, each time a member of their clan is interred, their voice would be recorded in the cave and would be there for all of their offspring's lives. The voice said that the people that lived in the cave weren't just Fay's father, but also all of the others who had been cremated by their clan. Fay stepped in, "If they were all to talk, it would be too much for you to endure," and the voice said, "That is accurate, my son. It'd be intolerable.

Fay laughed at his father's reply and inquired, "Why should they remain silent? I want to hear from everyone. "As you wish," the voice agreed before adding, "But be warned." Fay is resolved to pay attention to every voice despite the caution. He is touched by his father's remarks and resolved to do what he said. The voice of his father commanded Fay to perform each chore, including extracting blood. He used his abilities to teleport to the realm of humans, where he grabbed the blood and consumed a little bit of it before disappearing. He spits the last of the blood into a power base he had built with the help of his father and returns to the cave of mystery. An astounding event played out before his eyes: the pool of power could resurrect Fay's father and other departed clan members. The power base suddenly started to quake violently before stabilizing.

When they left the mysterious cave, Fay, Harold, and Lloyd (the ancestor who drank human blood in his lifetime), they were taken to another world. This new world, which is close to the Dellhollow world, is given the name Halloway by Harold, the land of the werewolves. They set the power base they had made firmly on the ground, and it made a huge hole. Because the power base included the potency of both human blood and the blood-sucking ghost's essence, Fay is able to use it to construct a strong army that is more potent than even the blood-sucking ghosts, known as vampires.

In know time at Dollhollow's world Chin the leader died and his voice is sent to the cave of mystery as usual but when Chin voice got their the other leaders before him explained everything that happened to Chin and he got sad for not dying I'm time to meet up with his brother and his son, and then at the Dellhollow world war started for countries where the were-wolves is more powerful than the Vampires(the blood sucking ghost) Chin son took over from his father after his death which got Fay angry though he is the leader of the were-wolves he is angry for not been able to take his revenge on his uncle Chin who died so he took a vowed in the presence of his amry and his father, his ancestor Lloyd who had joined him to create his armies that he would not rest until he turns every one of the blood sucking ghost like them and they will now to him, this is because he is greed even after the very person he wanted to take revenge on eventually died he still wanted to rule as a leader in Dellhollow and also a leader in the were-wolves clan (Halloway) by his father's wicked advice, with Harold evil advice to his son Fay turned him to become very greed and wicked, so as time goes on war always break out in both Dellhollow world and the Halloway world, every time some of Fay's armies are together they are always in confusion because they never see the faces of those Fay their leader claims to speak with, Fay would boast in front of his armies that all of this creation of the Halloway world won't be possible if not for the help of his father (Harold) and his ancestor (Lloyd) whom the armies don't see physically so the armies feared that if they should question Fay about the two people they don't see he might kill them, so all they do is now and worship them each time Fay spoke about them they believed that the two people Fay talks about his their gods that can not be seen by anyone expect the great leader Fay that could see them because he is their leader, so each time war goes on at the Dellhollow world Fay sometimes has the opportunity to kill some of the Vampires while some times he kidnappers some and give them the water from The power base and they turned into were-wolves immediately and hunger for the blood of an human Fay also have some human beings captured so they kill them once they are hunger the difference between the were-wolves and the Vampires.

As at then the Vampire at Dellhollow world feeds on animals blood, while As at then the were-wolves feed on human food, human blood and animals blood so there is a huge difference between the were-wolves and the Vampire and they kept on fighting for ceutries and Fay died before Fay died he fell in love with a human beings a woman he kidnapped at the human world and he turned here into a were-wolf by giving her the water from The power base and when she drank it she became a were-wolf and she also became Fay's wife and he named (Desdemona) after she is forced to drink the water from The power base she fell deeply in love with Fay and they both got married and she became the leader's wife and she bare him a son and Fay named him after himself and when Fay is 18 years

Fay's his father died but before he died he had made his son very powerful that he is able to also see his Father, Grandfather and Llyod (his ancestor) and he became a wicked man and then continued to fight the Dellhollow world, because of this the Vampire in the Dellhollow became very afraid of the were-wolves most especially when a spy is sent from the Dellhollow world to the Haloway world to found out what they were up to along the operation Fay found out that there is a spy in their world and then he turned him into a were-wolf with the help of the water inside The power base and everything is going well for the were-wolves for ceutries until Chin prayers at the cave of mysteries is attended to by the blood-sucking ghost ancestor and Chin great grandson (Manson) is born into the Dellhollow world and claimities started to befall the were-wolves world (Haloway) and then the blood-sucking ghost world is becoming powerful and as at then Fay's grandson Martinez is in power and Chin grandson is in power whom name is Hay.

Chapter Three

70,000 Warriors

Martinez gave birth to a female child while Hay gave birth to a male child and (Hay's) son is born first and I no time Martinez gave birth to a baby girl whom they believed would change their world or rather save them from the calamity they are going through and in no time war began and the Dellhollow and the Haloway world were both angry that they found to not leave any of the were-wolves alive, and the Haloway believed the reason for the calamity befalling them is because of the Vampires so they also vowed no one will remain that they will kill them all and in no time the war began and the Dellhollow is able to locate the Haloway world and they attacked them first as the war began Harita (Hay's) wife took their little baby boy along with them to fight because they have prided that once the new born baby goes to war with them they would win in the battle as they the war began the Vampire killed 70,000 thousand armies of the were-wolves this took place because the new born went with them to the war and it's went well with Hay and they believed the prediction even the more and out of excitement (Hay and Harita) didn't know that some other few armies of the were-wolves that Martinez kidnapped from the Dellhollow world only pretend to (Hay and Harita) that they were back to their senses all of this made them happy thinking since they have destroyed Martinez armies all the spells he had cast on those he kidnapped from the vampire world and turned to his own armies are been free from the spell they didn't know it's is a plan work of Martinez to kidnapped their new baby because of the prediction Martinez ancestors gave to him that the new born baby is a very powerful child that he is blessed by the ancestors of the Vampire world with an unusual power and they told him if he could get hold of the child and he gave him the water from The power base he would be on their side and fight against the Dellhollow so Martinez knew what is happening along and he isn't surprised when he lost his 70,000 armies he knew it's because of the new born child and then out of excitement Harita handed her child to one of the were-wolves armies that Martinez kidnapped thinking they were freed from the spell he cast on them and she went on and hugged her husband Hay in happiness that they have won the were-wolves and the Dellhollow world is now free though the Vampire too lost so many lives and when Harita hugged her husband they were both happy and when Hay look away from his wife he saw how those his wife handled their baby were running faster taking away their child and immediately Hay and Harita ran and followed them and luckily they catch up with them but the baby boy is already in (Martinez's) arms and he is beside The power base, when Hay and Harita saw The power base they were shocked and asked Martinez in a loud voice what are you doing? He said you stand there asking me what am I doing you killed 70,000 of my armies because of the power your son has and you think I would keep clam and allow you go freely and then Hay spoke please don't harm my son Harita is already in tears and then Martinez spoke up and said of course I won't harm him but he must become one of us I will turned him into a were-wolf and he will become my son and then (Martina) spoke up (Martinez's) wife spoke up and said I have my daughter here with me and we both have our own child why would you make their son ours, my daughter is enough just kill this child and that all, Martinez shouted at his wife and said how dare you (Martina) this child is a great asset for our world and I must do as our ancestors has asked me to do I will give the child the water from The power base and he will become one of us and he would destroyed the Dellhollow world once and for all, Martinez and (Martina) got distracted by talking to each other they didn't know Hay is already closer to them, when he got closer Martinez noticed but it's too late because Hay struggles to collect his child from Martinez but they both struggled and before they knew it the baby fell into The power base because of this Hay got angry and the both of them fought each other until Hay mistakenly killed Martinez wife and their baby girl slipped from her hands and because of this Martinez got angry thinking his wife and child is dead and then he first of all killed (Hay's) and then the two men killed themselves and Hay is glad to die because he taught his son is dead and in no time Hay died while before (Martinez) died he realized his daughter is alive and he is confused of what to do and then he realized that human beings are very merciful and they have a kind heart because each time he went out hunting in the human world he saw how they cared for each other and then he took his child though he is in pain at the point of death he disappeared into the human world and dropped his child on the street in the human's world and then he disappeared but he couldn't make it to his own world so he died on his way.....

100,000 hours later at the Haloway world The power base brought the child that is inside it, this is because there isn't anyone from Fay's lineage that is alive and then there isn't anyone to maintain The power base anymore but some amazing happened because The power base gave every current of power it's had to the child that is in it for 100,000 hours and then the pool disappeared and with The power base directives, the child is transported to the human world before it's disappeared.

Martinez's daughter is taken to the orphanage because someone found the child laying on the street she is adopted by Mr. and Mrs Cohen Haley a powerful scientist in Scotland they loved the little girl so much that they took care of her(Mrs. Lesya Cohen's wife named the baby girl " Ailia"

Hay's Son is found on the street in Scotland and Mr. Jack Wills a lawyer in Scotland adopted him immediately and took him home this is because Jack and his wife Liliana never had a child and when he brought the baby home to her she liked him and took care of him and the both of them named him " Evander"

Chapter Four

Years Later

The story begins with Mr. Cohen as the best scientist of the year. Cohen is very satisfied and happy with all his achievements.

One day at a conference, Mr. Cohen is given an award for his dedication to the institute he works at. After the conference, Cohen walks back to his institute, where he meets Joe and Nadine. Joe is Cohen's boss and Nadine is Joe's son's girlfriend. Nadine, who at first sight of Mr. Cohen is attracted, seemed to know a lot about him and she asked him to question how it felt to be one of the best scientists in the world and how it felt to be rewarded with this prize by the president himself; Joe interrupts her by pulling her arm and telling her that they have work to do; Nadine apologizes for her interruption but doesn't stop looking at Mr. Cohen as they leave, Mr. Cohen didn't care about everything Nadine said even though he knows that she had eyes for him for some while now all he cared about is Ailia his daughter who he wants her to become a scientist like him and she refuses his idea all the time and this always makes him sad.

They were one happy family and each year they celebrate Ailia's birthday every year, Ailia is always happy Every Time her parents celebrates her birthday but Mr. and Mrs. Cohen never revealed her true identity that she is an adopted child, life is so good to Mr. and Mrs. Cohen every since Ailia came into their lives as a baby but there is a secret Ailia keeps from her parents most especially every night after the birthday celebration she experiences strange things which Ailia feels she is different from her father and mother. Thinking about it starts to be burdensome for her and sometimes it leads to sleepless nights most especially on her birthdays at midnight. because she experienced strange things in the house that she told nobody about.

So on her 18th birthday, Lesya reminded Ailia about previous birthdays parties they had celebrated and they both laughed and they were happy because of the memories, At that moment as they were still discussing Ailia became sad all of a sudden and she remembered how she would've changed from human to..... and immediately Lesya interrupted her and she got herself and she asked Ailia why she became sad of a sudden but since she is keep everything from her mother she smiled it out and they continued decorating everywhere in the house because it's is her birthday and in an hour they were done and Ailia sat all alone again after Lesya left her to get every other thing done and then

Ailia got curious about what happened to her so she decided to start a mission which is to find out why she always changes into..... And then Ailia heard the doorbell and her thought got interrupted and she went straight to open the door and it's her Cohen her dad who had so many gifts in his hands and then she help him with some and they went straight inside where he held Ailia's hands and kissed her forehead and said to her `` I love you honey can't believe you are 18 and then they hugged each and Cohen spoke up while Lesya is already near both of them surprise and he brought out his award and then Ailia and Lesya were surprised then he said to them the president himself gave it to me in the conference today I isn't expecting it if I had known I would have gone with the both of you and then the two of them hugged him at the same time and then they were happy and in no time Cohen became sad and Ailia is the first person to voice out and she asked him ``what's happening, dad? Cohen said i wish you would reconsider Ailia before you apply to study Sociology and then he added i would like it if you would become a scientist like me it's my dream honey and you will gain so many directions, i will put you through a lot of things you will have so much advantage and we can both work on my latest researches and most especially the ``ALC`` and immediately Lesya widen her eyes as a sign for Cohen to stop talking or else Ailia might suspect what they are hiding from her and thankfully Ailia isn't looking into their direction she is fed up of what her dad tells her all the time of becoming a scientist like him and all that amd Ailia realized her dad stopped talking all of a sudden and she wondered why and as she turned to give her attention Lesya got herself and Cohen too so they both smiled and they said to her let get things ready our guests would arrived soon for the party so Ailia couldn't ask them why her Dad stopped talking and they went in straight to start preparing for the party.

The party began and there were so many guests to celebrate with Ailia including Cohen colleagues, friends, families, well-wishers and after some hours the party is over and they called it a day at midnight Ailia became scared as usual after every birthday and it's midnight the unthinkable happens her big secrets only she knows and that she kept away from her parents and the next morning she had to clean up everywhere before her mom Lesya comes to check on her and the following is the day for Ailia to apply into the University of St. Andrews to study Sociology and Ailia is very happy finally she is going to the university while Cohen is happy and at the same time he is sad because of Ailia's choice, of course, to study at the university.

The admission process went smoothly at the university because normally the St. Andrews University acceptance rate is only around 8.63% and Ailia got even more than the acceptance rate in no time she got admitted into the university, The university had two semesters which is called the Candlemas semester from January to May and then Martinmas semester from September to December so it's is Candlemas semester Ailia resumed at the university and then she met with some of her course mates and friends.

Ailia is just normally studying for her first semester in university. She has a part-time job at a bookstore without her parents knowing because she knows if they had them they would kill against it anyways so she hid her part-time job from them.

One day one of Ailia's fellow coursemate named Lona Nelson started to talk about a particular guy she had noticed recently whose name is Evander Jack Wills he is also a new student at the university and he is studying MLitt in Legal and Constitutional Studies and Lona kept on talking about his looks she said added he is the very dashing man I tell you and some girls I saw talk about his kind gesture towards everyone around him then Sheena Lachlan another coursemate of Ailia spoke up and asked Lona why are talking so much about him do maybe have some interest on the guy or something and then Ailia and Sheena laughed out and made gest of her and she isn't bothered and she kept on talking about him almost every time they were together.

Evander is always seen around the campus, often in Ailia's classes but never interacted with her. One day, Ailia dropped a pen and he picked it up and handed it back to her. He seemed like a very kind person. She didn't seem to give him any more attention until one day when she caught him staring at her. And then Ailia asked herself why he is staring but she chose not to pay any attention to him and she didn't know that is the same guy Lona talks about.

And after some time Evander started crushing on Ailia and during the then Martinmas semester he found some ways in which he can approach Ailia.

First encounter:

Every time Evander sees Ailia, he falls deeper into a crazy crush. His chance encounters with Ailia were always very brief and he never quite had the guts to talk to her because he is worried about how she'd react.

One night Evander saw Ailia at the student center. He is too afraid to talk to her. He got to the point where he thought it's better not to talk to her because if he did she might reject him. So he went home that night feeling crushed by his cowardice.

Second encounter:

Evander knew he had to find a new way to approach Ailia, but didn't know what that way would be. One day at lunch in the student center, Evander saw Ailia sitting near a window by herself, looking lost in thought with her cheek resting on her hand and staring out the window. This time Evander isn't afraid of talking to her and then he introduced himself to her and from there they became good friends even though Evander being close with Ailia made him more attracted to her sweet personality, as she is always smiling and happy; he admired her strength and independence as well. Evander also really liked her defiant nature, she is always trying to rebel against the system or defy what people said. But she did it without being mean or hurtful to anyone, it always came across as playful.

Despite his feelings for Ailia, Evander never acted on them because he felt it's not the right time yet. He knew that Ailia is going through a hard time due to some secrets she didn't share with him most especially on her birthday when she is very sad Evander tried everything he could to let her share what the problem is but she didn't share it with and then he made up his mind not to tell her how he is feeling towards her because he didn't want to be another disappointment or have his feelings rejected by someone else in need. He instead became friends with her and tried to support Ailia in whatever way possible; he did this even though he wanted more from their relationship.

Chapter Five

Helping Everyone

Every year Evander has a very scary transformation he hid from his parents when the time comes for him to transform and become a beast according to how he sees himself he leaves the house that is why Evander stays alone he had his own apartment after 12th grade when Evander obtained HSC; The Higher Secondary Certificate and when his parents celebrated his birthday for him he tricked them into agreeing to do whatever he wished and they agreed and got him an apartment close to them in which they could keep an eye on him, they never knew Evander is a child who got super powers and he could do anything, one day when Evander turned 12 years old he transformed into a vampire and he used his super powers to turned himself into all kinds of people he even took the form of his father and mother to distract them and he would make an excuse when his father Jack wills wants to make out with his wife, he would excuse himself from his dad under the pretense of going to check and see if Evander (himself) is not going to catch them making out and then he runs to his room and lock himself and take his form back and go out playing and Jack goes around and search for his wife Liliana who he never knew Evander is the one who took her form and then when Liliana returns they argue and quarrel which always saddens Evander, Evander helps his father Jack a lot and some time he takes the form of witnesses in court to help his father win a lot of case all of this is Evander doing without Jacks knowledge, so Jack sees Evander has his lucky charm and he shares a lot of his case with him and he believes once he gets to court he would win which is why Jack gives Evander everything he wants no matter what it's is and he also helps his mom Liliana with her business because Evander takes rich people form to infleunce customers into buying things from his mother's store all of this is happening and Evander isn't happy even though he is helping his parent and people he is still sad because he doesn't like what he turns into because he believed he is a beast.

Evander gets pretty sad and he fears that he might turn into one of the bad vampires. Evander still has some humanity and he knows what it's like to be oppressed and discriminated against because of who you are, not what you are. He wonders whether there will ever be acceptance in this world for those who are different, or if they are doomed to be lonely or end up hurting someone before being able to find love again, those were the exact feelings Evander has and his fears.

One day Ailia woke and she is feeling very tired and strange but she gathered some little strength and she freshen up and she is heading to school because she had her own personal car and then because she is feeling tired she pulled over at a shopping centre and entered a store where got a drink to refresh herself has she is about to leave some arm robbers walked into the store to threaten the store owner who is pleading with them to please don't hurt anyone i will give you whatever you want and she plead again please and they shouted more on her and they pushed her to the ground then she became very afraid and then Ailia got angry and she covered her face and then her anger made her to transform into a big were-wolf and immediately Ailia attacked the armed robbers in minutes and every other person at the store ran out and then the store owner is afraid but Ailia offered her hand and pulled her up but she is afraid of the giant were-wolf and then the store turned around to get some money to give to the were-wolf has she is about to say thank you to the were-wolf and give her some money, as she turned around to gift the were-wolf she is no where to be found but she saw a barlect but she saw one piece on the floor that made thd shop owner concluded that the were-wolf that had helped is a woman so she picked it up and then the store owner put a call to her husband who is on able to pick her calls and then she called her son and gave him and explain everything and then he hanged up and rushed to the store and then Evander walked straight in towards his mom Liliana and hugged her and then he asked her to explain everything to him and then he became very worried and he asked himself who could that be? Evander mustn't transform in Ailia's presence and Ailia mustn't transform in Evander's presence or else it would become a disaster, lucky Ailia left before Evander arrived at his mom's store or else both of them will need to fight each in their forms, And then Evander said to himself that he would stop at nothing until he finds out who the creature is that saved his mom's life he said to himself he would be indebted to that creature all his life, and each passing day he kept on looking for the creature.

As Ailia is on her way she realized the other piece of her bracelet is missing but she didn't know where it fell off and then she went straight home.

Ailia has started having feelings for Evander, although she does not know what he can think about her. Starting from the day Ailia had to follow him to the school and get to know everything about him, her admiration and affection for Evander have grown exponentially.

And then Evander told Ailia of the creature that saved his mother's life at the store and that he would be forever indebted to the creature on hearing this Ailia is surprised so she realized that the woman she helps at the store is Evander's mom and she is shocked but she remained quiet but she liked the fact the Evander want to know who she is but she must hide it from him and then she pretended to be surprised and then she appreciated the creature Evander didn't know the same creature he wanted to meet with badly is in front of him, Evander kept on staring at Ailia the whole time as they were talking because she appreciated the creature so he said to himself I hope someday when you get to know I am a monster I hope you would appreciate me this way and then Ailia caught Evander staring at her smiling. Why is he doing this?

Ailia thought, "Why is he doing this? I don't know and she played along and smiled back at him and they called it a day, Evander felt thirsty and he went to get water. He walked into the kitchen and saw his shadow and realized he had turned into a vampire again he said to himself not again he added am a monster again and then he puts on his clothes and leaves the house to search for blood.

Fast forward to him walking in the streets of the city, he notices a shop with no lights on, it's closed. He goes in and takes some blood from the refrigerator but first, he calls his mom to tell her he loves her.

He finds himself going back home again and then he says the red wine is cool. I just have to speak to my mind and convince it that I just tasted blood. All I need is just that because I am not a monster and this is what Evander does every time he transforms into a vampire to convince himself though he gets the urge to drink animal blood and human blood his mother's voice always reminds him of her upbringing which is ``Evander Son`` you must not hurt any human being you are only permitted to help people not hurt time so these exact words are what keeps Evander going each day not to become a monster and then he cared less about his hunger for blood because of his mother's love and upbringing.

In the morning Evander woke up. He recalls all of the fun he had with Ailia last night and begins missing her. He also notices that he is late for class. He gets dressed and rushes to class on his way he becomes sad and worried about his feelings for Ailia and whether she still wants him in her life if she discovers how he transforms. When he arrives at the university he walked in and suddenly he saw Ailia sitting talking and walking down to the lecture room with Lona and Sheena and his breath hitches but he dodged them and walked down to class after lectures. He walked for hours and hours until he found himself sitting in a library reading a book. He sat there for some time until an old man with a cane walked in. Evander looked into him and saw nothing but sadness in his eyes.

The old man walked up to Evander and said "Evander Jack Wills?" And Evander replied "Yes."

The old man then said "I'm sorry for your loss," before sitting down next to him, Evander got confused and wanted to ask him who he is but he couldn't ask because his body start getting cold and he needed to transform immediately and this surprised Evander because he doesn't transform during the day and he can use his superpowers during the day time but he has never had the urge to transform during the day time before and then since he noticed this he is unable to question the old man so Together they sat there in silence until the old man took out a tiny box which contained two rings which were entwined with each other.

The rings began to shine with a radiant light, then the old laughed out but in a wicked way and then Evander realized the old man isn't an old man after all and then he snapped his fingers and the time stopped working but he discovered that the old his also powerful because whenever he snapped his fingers everyone around him stops moving they become stagnant but the old man is not stagnant and before he knew it the old man threw away the cane in his hand and he started walking normally and he transformed into a young man and then he asked Evander why are you resisting drinking the blood of a human you can never become who you truly are if you don't taste the blood of a human and then Evander became confused and asked him who are you? How did you know me? And then he laughed and answered I am your Ancestor that is why I know who you are." there are some humans here in our midst take one now and suck the blood now to become more powerful even more than me, Evander spoke up I don't need any power can you please take away this power from me I want to become a normal human being, not a beast please help me out and then the old man who had turned into a young man became angry and then spoke and cut off one his hands and another hand came out immediately then he said you don't appreciate your power the very power everyone in our clan wanted so badly and today you have disgrace the whole clan by rejecting this power and then Evander spoke up again I don't this power please take it away from me and then the transformed man spoke up and said you don't want this power right? Evander nodded and said yes please take it away from me then he said even if you want the power to leave you and for you to become a normal human you must drink the blood of another human begin like this and immediately the young man drew a woman to him and suck her blood in front of Evander who is disgusted by what he did and he shouted why did you kill her, Evander doesn't know he is speaking to his enemy and then the young man intentionally open his mouth that is full of blood so Evander will perceive it and get tempted to suck the blood and it's happened for the first time Evander couldn't resist the scent of human blood he is almost going to get hold of a man beside him to do the same thing the young man did but he heard a voice from behind him saying don't fall for his trick he is your enemy you are a "Dellhollow" not an evil person and then Evander is surprised when the young man in front of him that called himself his ancestor left where he is to face another man if his kind but the other one is different and Evander like the other man that brought him back to his sense and before he knew it the two men started fighting and where they were change immediately though the two men were still fighting while Evander shock by asking himself where is this place? And then the two men start talking in a strange language that Evander didn't understand and they both shouted at each other and began to argue this language got Evander confused. He asked them in a loud voice, speaking in English, then he asked "What are both saying? I don't understand this language speaks to me in the language I can understand and immediately the other man that brought Evander to his sense botched the old man who turned into a young man and disappear but before he did he made a statement and Evander could read that he is saying something "like it'sn't over yet" and then he disappeared and Evander is left alone with the other man that helped him to come back to his sense and then Evander spoke and said to him thank you, man, for helping out there even you didn't come on time I would have and then he spoke up and said I have a limited time to speak with you and he said "you must be very careful from now on" that man his your enemy you must be very careful and Evander spoke up and said yeah you are right about that, then he asked what language is that? What connection do you have with me? I felt at peace when you spoke to me earlier. Can you help me with my questions? Who am I exactly? I..... Then Evander noticed that there is a timer on the young man's body reading "30 seconds" and then the young man said ask me any question wisely I don't have so much time Evander asked I want to see you how do I see you? Then he said in the "cave of mysteries" then Evander asked how do I get there? then he spoke up the wait and before he knew it he disappeared and Evander is shocked because he saw himself in his room at home and then he is scared that those people he snapped his fingers for were still there so he rushed down there and found out everything is back to normal he didn't know once he leaves where he snapped his fingers things would back to normal because the time wouldn't feel his presence and everything would go back to normal naturally. When he got back to his room at his house he became worried and wanted to know those people and he kept on repeating "cave of mysteries" where is that place? While Ailia is at her house feeling restless why because her ancestor came to earth.

Chapter Six

The Talking Stage

Ailia is so restless lately because of the appearance of one of her ancestors but (she isn't aware of this) she is sure that the feeling is her werewolf. She took precautions since the transformation would lead to a lot of pain as usual especially if she is not transforming to help anyone it leads to a lot of pain if she transform on her own

Then at night, with a full moon, (she doesn't know it's a full moon) she transformed into her werewolf form in her room. With a brief moment of confusion, Ailia realized she didn't just turn into her normal werewolf form but one that is much larger than before. Her parents were deep asleep. She ran out of the house and straight into the forest where she saw a deer and she ran to catch it. But the deer sensed danger and quickened its steps; Ailia lost sight of it but still followed her instincts which led her to another deer. She pounced at it but missed and landed on an animal trap that dug into her skin; this also launched some sort of adrenaline which made Ailia feel more powerful than ever before, so she jumped over other animal traps without getting hurt. And then stopped because a deer hit her and this made her lose her steps and she fell to the ground and then she is about to get hold of the deer but she stopped because the deer spoke and called her by her name 'Ailia' she became shocked and is confused because of the talking deer who spoke in anger and said " how dare you to disgrace your clan this way? You are after animals to eat them instead of being around humans to kill them and you are using your power here, then Ailia spoke up and asked who are you? How do you know my name? The deer answered I am your ancestor and immediately Ailia burst into laughter and asked the deer. I am going to eat you up and I will see for myself if you are my ancestor I don't care if you are a talking deer or not it means nothing to me, so now the deer spoke up in anger and said silence then the deer transformed into the same young man that appeared to Evander who wanted him to suck the blood of a human begin but Ailia is; unaware of this so she is shocked by the transforming and the young man cursed Ailia to go into a deep sleep where he used his superpowers to manipulate some things that never took place centuries back he made the "Dellhollow" clan look bad in the sense that they killed Fay's father without mercy he didn't show to Ailia the complete story and then Ailia woke up from her vision and saw the young man smiling at her and then she asked what did the other man did that he is killed without mercy and what does this has to do with me, I don't know you and The young man interrupted and said you must avenge our clan Ailia this is the reason you were born to avenge our clan they cheated us Ailia they did and then Ailia became confused and need more answers but the young man went missing she searched the entire forest but he is no were to be found and then she became sad and went back home and she promises to come back to the same spot every day to get answers to her question and she didn't disclose any of this to her parents.

The next morning is the "May dip" where student at the university find themselves plunging into a freezing North Sea at dawn on the first of May, which is said to promote good luck in exams and Evander, Ailia, Lona and Sheena is taking part in this, so they all went to have fun and for the first time in years Ailia doesn't know she is now more powerful than before and this is the first after her encounter with the deer in the forest she would meet with Evander and they mustn't come too close to each other because Ailia power is still very fresh and then as Evander and Ailia came in contact something inside Ailia is waging war but she doesn;t know where the source is coming from while Evander is also feeling very restless and the both of them couldn't handle they had to go away from each other and they both went to the restroom and then Ailia said to herself why am i feeling all of this now? she added which means i must leave from here before anyone sees me like this, so she couldn't attend the 'May dip' tradition all she did is went home straight when she left the area Evander started feeling better and then he came out if the rest room to go be with Ailia and her friends but he found out she isn't there and he got text from her saying she isn't feeling and that she had left he felt disappointed but he had to stay back and enjoy the festival.

Cohen has been working on a chemical named the ALC. The process has been difficult, but the results are worth it. However, there is one thing he must get right before he can make his invention public--an ingredient, according to the lie he told Ailia he doesn't want her to found the reason behind the chemical but Lesya is aware of the reason so they hid it from Ailia This ingredient is what will protect the ALC from the interference of sunlight and keep it stable this and many lies they told Ailia just to get her attention away from knowing more about the chemical and Cohen as been waiting for years and he knows once he perfects this last step, they would be able to..... and then he called Lesya into the lab he has at home this is because in some many years he has been working on this chemical he had never reached the level he is presently out of excitement he called Lesya to come over to look at his work and she forgot to lock the door behind her they weren't aware that Ailia would return home early and since she's so supportive of all of his innovative ideas they were both excited and she wore her nose mask and went into the lab while she left the door opened Ailia arrived home thinking her parents would be at work and then she started perceiving the chemical and she started feeling dizzy and she gathered some strength and walk straight from where she is perceiving the smell and then saw her father's lab for the first time and Cohen and Lesya is talking about the "ALC" with so much joy until they heard Ailia voice calling out to the both of them when turned around they were surprised to see Ailia who passed out in front of them and Cohen and Lesya ran towards her while Cohen carried her to her room and went back to lock the lab and then Cohen shouted at Lesya that why didn't she lock the door and then she spoke up i is very happy when you called me i taught you have finally gotten the cur..... Ailia sneezed and both of them rushed towards her because she is lying on her bed then she asked what happened, dad? Cohen is quiet and then she asked again what is that place you never showed me that place before I never knew it exists in this house then Cohen spoke up yes honey I have a lab at home; I didn't show you because of all these some chemicals are too strong for you to inhale even your mom uses a mask and me too so we won't inhale it and then Ailia spoke up and asked but I heard you talking about the "ALC" with mom and you said it's not ready for me to use it yet? And then Cohen realized Ailia must have heard some of his conversation with Lesya then he twisted it and said yes this is because the "ALC" means Ailia, Lesya, and Cohen we all will need it honey I have worked hard during these years to come up with this chemical and it's very important to humanity I will explain better to you just take some rest Lesya is all afraid and she said to herself thank goodness you were able to come up with something Cohen am so glad you did and then Ailia look at her mom who is lost in thoughts and she asked are you okay mom? And Lesya got herself up and said yes honey you need to relax I will make something for and they both left all alone in her room.

And then Ailia began to remember her experience with the talking deer who showed her those scary visions and she planned on what to do next so she can get more answers to her questions.

Many weeks after...

Evander kept on calling her on phone but she isn't aware because she is in the kitchen with her parents and then in an hour they were done cooking and then Ailia and her parents served the food and she took her phone from her bag too because it's is vibrating and unfortunately, the phone stopped vibrating when she took it out and when she checked who is calling she saw missed calls and she spoke up and said "oh my gosh" so many missed calls from Evander and then she said to her parents I will be back it's Evander I need to call him back and then she left them and went inside her room and gave him a call:

Ailia: Hello Evander, I am so sorry I missed your calls. I is in the kitchen with my mother and dad. I isn't aware it's ringing.

Evander: I thought as much Ailia how are you doing? I just wanted to check on you and remind you of our date tomorrow. Have you changed your mind?

Ailia: smiles..... seriously you want me to change my mind? And it's a good idea thanks so much for your for me to change my mind and it seems am going to do just that

Evander: No please don't change your mind I is only joking I is only pulling your legs

Ailia: smiles... just joking too I won't do that,

Evander: laughing..... so glad you didn't change your mind....

Still on phone; with Evander and then Ailia heard a man's voice: talking aloud saying "shut up woman" she heard her mom's voice begging please we would give you anything you need please don't hurt us and then Evander noticed Ailia's silence and asked from the phone "what's wrong?" Ailia spoke up and said I will call you back Evander she ended the call and Ailia rush out of her room calling out and asking mom what is happening when Ailia got to the sitting room she saw 4 men with guns pointed their gun on her parents and she is surprised while one of the men spoke up and asked in a loud voice " how many people are in this house? And he pointed his gun on Ailia saying come here or I will kill them and in no time Ailia rush out and joined her parents on the floor and Lesya held her daughter to herself and then Cohen spoke up and said "please let my family go I will give you anything you want" and one of the men that pointed his gun on Ailia spoke up we don't need your fifty money we just need your new discovery "Chemical ALC" and we will let you and your family go, Ailia voiced out never he will never give you that, Ailia spoke up because she knew how important the very Chemical that has won her father an award for years is going to be taking away by the four and immediately Lesya spoke up and said no honey don't interfere and then one of the men slapped Ailia and spoke up and said how dare you said that and Lesya held her daughter back to her crying then she shout at Cohen get up and give it to them don't you put our daughter's lives in danger, Cohen couldn't take it seeing their daughter been hurt in front of his eyes and then he nodded and spoke up I will give it to you and then (Ailia became very angry inside her she realized how much time her father scarified on this chemical how much prices he paid to get it come to reality and then she couldn't control her anger and in no time, she had no choice but to reveal her secret in front of her parents and then her anger grew stronger and in no time she became a were-wolf in front of her parents and then she devoured one of the men instantly in front of her own parents and she did the same to the other three men and their bones were also eaten and Lesya and Cohen were in shock and then Lesya shouted and Ailia came closer as a "wolf" she isn't able to transform in their presence and she ran upstairs to her room and then she changed into human and she wore her clothes and immediately she is ashamed to go out of her room while Lesya is banging the door and calling out to her "hey honey" can you come out let talk about this please come out honey and then Ailia spoke up and said "am cursed mom" I hid so much from I didn't want you and Dad to find out like this just go " I don't want to talk you both" I might eat you too up someday and then Cohen spoke up "No honey" I held you as a child even when you changed and we wore a cloth for you and we told you it's is okay and you stopped crying, that is very we tried our very best never to get you angry no matter what because me and your mom found out that it's only when you are angry so much, that when it's happened so that is why learnt how to never get you angry each passing day we fear and pray no one should get you angry at college because we are always afraid honey, immediately Ailia open the door and came out and ask "what you knew about this"? Cohen and Lesya nodded and Lesya hugged her and said yes honey we do, Ailia is surprised, Ailia questioned her parents uncontrollably until they told her to calm herself down and that they would answer all the questions she has then Ailia said if am like this Dad what's the assurance am not going to eat you both someday and if you knew which means you two are were-wolves too and then Cohen became sad and he said no honey there are somethings I and your mom is keeping from you. Then she voiced out and said you mean I am the only monster in the family? Then Lesya held her and said "no honey" my daughter isn't a monster you are priceless Jewel and we love you and then Cohen spoke 25 years ago I is coming back from work at night and as at then we weren't weathly as this honey we had no house of our home I is just coming up and your Mom and I were married for 10 years and then we never had any child of our own and that night it's is raining heavily I had to wait before I boarded a taxi home and as I walking along the street to go home I heard a child crying countiuoessly and I drew closer and saw a baby (you) laying there on the floor I went closer and call out so many times if anyone is there who owned the baby but after so much effort I called out so many times but no one answered me and then pick you up I is very happy when I saw your beautiful face and I is happy and I had doubts on taking home with me because I is afraid and unsure if your mom would be happy with my idea of bring you home I wanted to drop you there and just quietly go away and I got an idea which is if your mom doesn't accept you I would report the matter in the police station and I took you home with and I is surprised when I took you home your mother is happy when I explained everything to her and she brought the idea that we should adopted you as our own and then we did and took some legal action by giving you a birth certificate and giving you a name and you had my name as your last name and we took you in and you became our daughter and when you were six years old we celebrated your birthday but for the very first time we got you angry and in no time you transform into a were-wolf in our presence we were scared and I did so much research about it and ran some test on you with some chemicals and I discovered that when you get angry to a point you get transform into a were-wolf that's is why even till date I am still working on "ALC=Ailia, Lesya and Cohen chemical" am still looking for a cure for you honey but I know that you aren't sick honey and then Ailia spoke up and asked Cohen is that why you wanted me to become a scientist? Cohen looked at Lesya and nodded at Ailia who burst into tears and said you both have sacrificed so much for me and I am been stubborn thinking am alone I didn't know you both knew all of this and then she spoke up I don't care about my identity and I will become a scientist and I will look for a cure for this and until I am cured I won't stop trying and then Cohen and Lesya hugged their daughter and told her to always avoid anger no matter what and they both agreed that she would always control her anger.

Chapter Seven

Reunited at Last

The next day Evander is in the university bus he is very sad so he decided he would not drive to school so he joined the bus and then when he got into the bus he sat down quietly and then he is very worried because of the text message he got from Ailia saying she won't be in school, and she canceled their date and then he recalled that she said to him we would go some other time and then he asked himself what happening why won't she be coming to school today I is going to tell her how I feel about her today, I waited so long before I got the courage to tell her how I feel for her, Evander became very sad and because he is sad he started getting stress out he is almost taking his normal form in the bus but thankfully, Mr Angus spoke up and said "students just hold on I think we are going to have accident....."

When everyone heard what Mr. Angus had said, the students yelled in fear and kept asking the driver, Mr. Angus, what's wrong.

The bus is almost in an accident before he snapped his fingers because Evander, who is aware of what is happening, wouldn't let him finish speaking while he snapped his fingers. He then used his superpowers to cut off both of his hands, and another pair of hands appeared to replace the ones that were lost. He then expanded the two hands he had already lost into the same side of the bus's rolling tires. The bus lost balance because Mr. Angus held the steering to support himself so he wouldn't fall, and the bus is almost having an accident before he snapped his fingers and then he disappeared from inside the bus and appeared at the back of the bus where he inserted the two of his hands he as turned into tyres shape and then entered into the bus and he used his power to enter into the bus driver's body Mr Angus and then he snapped his fingers again and the time started working again where students were screaming but the bus got balanced because of what Evander did but the student started screaming again because the bus is moving faster and it's scared them all and in two minutes the school bus arrived in front of the school where students started rushing out in fear because Mr Angus is driving the bus too fast than usual and then Evander snapped his fingers when he saw that all the students are out and then he went out of Mr Angus body who is asking other students outside the bus what is happening what is going while Evander snapped his fingers again and time stopped working and he disappear to the back bus speedily and removed the human hand Tyre the bus is using while he stood in the midst of the other students and then he snapped his fingers and everything became normal but the bus lose it's balance while Mr Angus held the steering to support himself not to fall off from the bus when students saw that there isn't any tyres at the back of the bus they shouted and ran away because they were scared of Mr Angus who drove them to school with the bus that had no tyres.

And Immediately Angus called out to all of them to just hold that he doesn't know what is going on either and then Evander came to Mr Angus and said just calm down sir am sure it's must have been so misunderstanding so where and Angus look up to Evander and asked you aren't scare like the others right and then he said I didn't know what happened either I.... and Evander interrupted and said no worries I understand just give it time everything will be sorted out and then he got a call from the The head of health and safety management system and then Immediately Mr Angus told Evander that the "HHSM" just called him Evander became worried because he knew what the "HHSM" might want discuss with Me Angus he knew students must have gone to report what happened with the bus to him, Evander had no choice but to allow Mr Angus to see the "HHSM" but he had some plans which is immediately Mr Angus got to the "HHSM" office he followed him and snapped his fingers and time stop at usual he walked into the "HHSM" office who is stagnant on his chair then Evander used his super powers to open the "HHSM" head by using something that looked like a hospital surgery knief and then he brought out his brain from his head and perform some things which is inserting so good work Mr Angus does even when the "HHSM" isn't there, he inserted some good memories like when he helps students how committed he is to his work even when no one is watching and then after he did all of this with his super powers though Evander is tempted to eat the "HHSM" brain because of the fresh blood on it but he didn't allow his selfish taught to rule him so he did what he had to do quickly and then he snapped his fingers again and everything went back to normal but he has already left the "HHSM" office before he snapped his fingers. And the "HHSM" only appreciated Mr.Angus and warned him to be careful next time he drives students even his secretary reminded him of the spoiled just for him to get furious at Mr.Angus but said nothing all he said to her is that the bus would be fixed then Mr.Angus left the "HHSM" surprised and confused. And then the matter died down all because of what Evander did he wiped out all the memories from students and they forget the incident because of that Mr. Angus drove the bus normally again and Evander didn't know the accident happened purposely by the same old man who turned into a young man in front of him the last time.

Ailia resumed to school the following week after so much encouragement she got from her dad who said he would stop at nothing until he cures her and she became happy and she said to herself i am not alone anymore i have dad and mom with me i just have to control my anger that is it and i will get cured soon and then as she is deep in thoughts Evander came from behind her and then he frowned his face at her and said you didn't come to school and you didn't tell me why, and you canceled our date and i is very worried about you and you cared less to even inform me you would resume today, Ailia is smiling at how Evander is been very serious and angry at her but she realized everything he is saying is because he cares so much for her and then she spoke up and said "am sorry Evander" i is just.....and then she kept quite and said to him we are going on another date and i am the one asking now and then Ailia went close to him and spoke to his ears "please would you go on a date with me? And it tickles him and his anger melted and he became shy all of a sudden because that is the first time Ailia came close to him and then he pretended as if his heart isn't beating when she came closer and then she said to him see you later Evander and then he asked time? She smiled at 6 pm and she left Evander couldn't get that moment off his head and then he planned for another date Ailia asked.

Later that day around 6pm Ailia drove her car and she wore a red dress and she is looking very beautiful when Evander saw he is surprised because she is looking very beautiful and then she came out of her car and Evander's mouth is wide open and then he got himself and say "Hello Ailia" then she smiled at him and she said 'hi' are you set he is dressed in a yellowish shirt and he is also looking good and Ailia couldn't get her eyes off him they gazed into each other's eyes for some while until they got each themselves and Ailia gave the car key to Evander and then he drove the car to "The Rav"(A fanacy restruant) not took far from the university Evander book a nice place there for their date and when they got there Evander treated Ailai as a princess and then in no time Evander confessed his feelings for her which she reciprocated wholeheartedly and they share a passionate kiss that lead both of them into a serious unusual feelings the kiss they share made both of them become uneasy but Evander handle everything until Ailia stood up and went away from Evander, she took her car key and drove home straight away and she asked herself what just happened is i going to transform even before him and Evander called her so many times but she isn't picking up and then Evander sent her a message, but Evander became worried himself and he asked himself why is i feeling that why when we kissed i hope i isn't going to transform in front of her?

In the morning Ailia told her mom about Evander and she said to her I now have a boyfriend and his name is Evander, And Lesya is surprised and asked Ailia really when are you going to introduce him and then Ailia wanted to explain how she is feeling strange after Evander kissed her last night but she is very happy and she left Ailia side who is still talking to her she said to her am going to break the news to your dad Ailia am sure he would be happy, Ailia tried to stop her to explain things to her but instead Lesya asked her you don't plan on hiding it from your dad right? Ailia nodded and said no more I would like him to know as well I..... then Lesya left her out of excitement so Ailia couldn't explain things to her mom.

In the invisible realm (cave of mysteries).....

Martinez and Hay were arguing fighting that since they both died at the same time both of them must be the leaders in the cave of mysteries and every since their death and their voice had entered the cave of mysteries it's has been one argument from another and immediately Martinez attacked (Evander) who is Hay's son in the seen world as they call it in the cave of mysteries Hay has been constantly giving Martinez warning to stay away from his son and Martinez would shout at Hay and say to him that (Evander) is his son because he entered The power base and (Evander) as become one of them and he is no longer a blood sucking ghost and that he has tasted the blood of an human being so he is no longer his son but his own son Hay became angry that he vowed to Martinez that he would never allow his become like him and then the order voice including their forefathers can do nothing but to only watch and see, both Martinez and Hay could talk in the cave of mysteries because they both deid at the same time and then as they were talking and unusual breeze began to blow and the voices shouted at once including Martinez and Hay voices and then the cave of mysteries appeared as a man and shouted back at Hay and Martinez and they both kept quite immediately and then the man that appeared said can't you see that your argument has no meaning at the moment because the storm is coming and in no time everyone of us will perish and Hay and Martinez and every other voice were confused and they asked the cave of mysteries what do you mean? he answered see this and then they all looked at the world in the cave where they saw "Evander and Ailia" sharing a passionate kiss and then Martinez and Hay became shocked along with every other voices and then Hay asked how did they come in contact with each other and they are so close, and then Martinez isn't surprised he is happy and he said to himself i will take advantage of this and both of them would rule the Dellhollow and the Haloway world they both would build their armies and get me out of here and then Hay noticed that Martinez is quite then he said i am sure you are planning something evil that is why you are silent right and then Martinez said i am not surprise with this after all they are both have the same blood and then Hay spoke up in anger don't you dare call my son yours ever again and then the man that appeared voiced out in anger you both are in power because you both died at the same time you both must fix this, no such thing has ever happen before they must not unite and then Hay became shocked because of what the cave of mysteries said and then he asked both of us are in power i taught he is the only one in power and then said now i must save my son from his evil plans.

Chapter Eight

A Gift from the Heart

Since it's their first day together, Evander wants to get Ailia something special, so he consults his mother Lilian for help. She is delighted to learn about Ailia and told Evander, "I can't wait to meet your girlfriend," Then Evander went to the store to buy a romantic gift for Ailia. He looked at the different kinds of gifts and kept thinking about what Ailia would like, but he went with his mom's idea, which is to get her a necklace. Then they met. He texted her to ask to hang out, and she replied, so they both agreed to meet. He spotted a necklace with the infinity sign on it that he believed she would find interesting. He received the receipt after making the purchase. When a gun is fired at him just as he is ready to leave the store, some onlookers yelled, and Evander snapped his fingers to change. Furious, he demanded to know who had shot him, and when he did, he is surprised to find the same old guy who had transformed into a young man. Why are you in this place? Then he asked, "Don't you want to know who I am?" while laughing aloud. When the young man said, "I'm your father and my name is Martinez, I'm from Haloway world," Evander said, "you are using another of your schemes to make me taste human beings' blood again, right?" and then laughed. "You are the very person that almost made me drink the blood of a human beginning the last time we melt," he continued. Then Martinez said, "I know you won't believe me or you thought I would be here without some proof," and Evander got serious. Martinez then raised his hands and caused Evander to see himself in a vision as a baby, with his eyes wide open. Then Martinez showed him what happened at Haloway World, and he saw how Martinez dropped him on the street. Then he saw how his father Jack Wills took him to his home. Because of Hay's evil intentions regarding your kid, Martinez gave Evander a dejected expression, and Evander said, "Who is Hay?" Then Martinez spread untrue rumors about Hay to Evander, saying that his daughter is alive and out for vengeance. He claimed that she wanted to rule the Haloway world by killing you and undoing all the sacrifices made by your ancestors. Evander then intervened, saying that evil wouldn't triumph and that he would do everything in his power to find Hay's daughter and then bring her to you so that we could bring her back. Then Martinez vanished, and Evander tapped his fingers, and everything returned to normal. He vowed not to ask his father about his identity since they had never told him about it, and then he is happy and he said, "I will." Martinez needed some time to come up with an evil plan, so he told Evander that he would return to give him leads.

The first time Evander met Ailia, he is taken aback by how stunning she looked. He moved in for a passionate kiss before giving her the present, and they enjoyed one other's company until it's time to call it a day.

The same night they called it a day, Evander is on his way home when he noticed someone in front of the car standing on the road. Fearless, he came down thinking it's an enemy or perhaps Hay's daughter, not realizing it's Hay himself. When he saw Hay, he smiled at him, and Evander asked, "What are you doing here?" Hay then asked. When Evander interrupted Hay's explanation that he is the young man who had prevented him from drinking human blood previously, Hay is shocked. Evander said, "I know what your plan is, Hay. You want your daughter to continue with your evil plans while you get me on your side to kill me. Then you and your daughter would take over the Haloway and the Dellhollow world for yourself. I'm so glad my father Martinez told me the whole truth and not just the truth; I saw it with my own eyes so there is no way for you to hide man. I know all your dirty secrets to win me over and turn me into evil. Martinez also told me that drinking human beings' blood that day you stopped me is your plan for me not to know the whole truth. He said that dr.

After learning all of this from his son, Hay is shocked. He quickly realized that Martinez is responsible, but Hay remained silent. He didn't leave until Evander drove away and left him, and then Hay spoke up when he did. I know that Martinez has manipulated everything, but I wish I hadn't let him manipulate me earlier on. "It's not your fault son," he said. When Martinez told me he is the leader at the cave of mysteries, I believed him, and as a result, he is able to take the first opportunity to take the life span to take the human form for a long time while I stood there and didn't know. However, I will beat Martinez at his own game this time, and he won't succeed in turning you against me any longer. Instead, I will make you see the truth, and you might carry the Martinez blood but deep down you are my son. And then Hay disappeared to where Martinez is and when Martinez saw him, he said to him It seems you have grown up, you finally now have the lifespan too, and then he said well. In response, Hay moved closer to Martinez and punched him, causing Martinez to fall to the ground and immediately get back up. As soon as Hay finished, he disappeared and meant Martinez on the way who had the young man's form. When Martinez saw Hay who also had the young man, he noticed there weren't any timers on his chest and then he said well. He hates me now because of you, and Martinez said, "Oh, you have to talk to Evander." He then apologized and said, "I had to meet up with him first before you do." I took advantage of the opportunity because I knew that as soon as you realized we were both leaders, the first thing you would run after is to travel to get the lifespan so you can stay on earth longer when you appear to Evander. Hay and Martinez got into a firefight, and Hay started it. Hay used the fire from his mouth to attack Martinez, but Martinez escaped, and Martinez used the same kind of fire Hay had used but the only difference is that Martinez fire came from his hands. They fought until dawn, when they stopped because it's morning, and before they left, Hay vowed to Martinez that he would stop at nothing until his son Evander knew his evil intentions towards him. Then Martinez vanished, and Hay turned and took another fire. When Evander first saw Logan, he liked him, which made Hay, who had assumed the identity of Logan, feel at peace and made him happy that it would be simple to win his son over to his side until he could reveal Martinez's secrets to Evander. So he took the form of a young, gentle, innocent young man, and everyone at the university grew fond of him. Then he discovered some ways to approach Evander and gave himself a new name, Logan James.

Chapter Nine

Connecting the Spirits

Hay, who had changed to Logan, felt at ease when Evander first met Logan since he liked him. Therefore, Hay felt happy that it would be straightforward to win his son over to his cause up until he could tell Evander Martinez's truths. Logan did everything he could to win Evander over, and it worked: Evander liked Logan and they grew close to the point where he shared his feelings for Ailia with him. Logan didn't like Ailia because she is Martinez's daughter, so before the day when Evander would introduce Ailia to Logan, Logan came up with an idea to put Evander to sleep and then plan to approach Ailia in Evander's form and kill her in a forest nearby. Lesya is surprised when Evander Jack Wills introduced himself and said, "Ailia is just talking about you right now." She welcomed him inside the house and offered him a seat before calling Ailia, who is shocked to see him and said, "Hey Evander, you didn't tell me you were coming." Cohen then emerged from the bathroom as Ailia's mother is still asking who he is. Then Lesya cut in, saying, "It's okay, son." I don't want you to injure my kid in any way; she is my princess and she is extremely dear to me, said Cohen. Cohen smiled and said to Ailia, "I like him," while Lesya wanted to prepare something for him to eat. However, Evander spoke into Ailia's ears, "Is it possible we stroll out i want to show you something," then Ailia interrupted her mother and said they both are going to leave. Lesya said to Cohen, "You have to work quickly on the ALC as soon as possible. Our daughter is growing up before our eyes, and today she brought a guy home. Tomorrow, she could surprise us by telling us that she is getting married. Lesya is drawn to Cohen, who hugged her and assured her that everything would be great and that their daughter would soon be cured.

They are en route.

Driving, Evander told Ailia, "I found a place and I think it'll be a good place to sit and talk for some time." As he continued into the forest, Ailia began to feel off, so she asked, "What is this place?" When Evander stopped the car in the middle of the forest, Ailia is shocked and questioned why he is acting strangely. When he stopped the car, Ailia asked, "What is happening, Evander?" She then remarked, "You can't be my Evander," to which Hay interrupted and remarked, "Wow what a smart woman you are. You are just like your father Martinez, you figured this quickly, So Logan wanted to take his true form then he remembered that Martinez's daughter would also have some powers so he quickly took the form of Hay, and then the car they were both sitting on turned into Hay's body and then Ailia is sitting on Hay's leg and he got angry and shook his leg and then Ailia fell to the ground confused and then she asked Evander what happening who are you? Then she said you can't be my Evander and then Hay spoke up and said wow what a smart woman you are, you are just like your father Martinez you figured this quickly and this is the reason why

I will kill you. I would never allow you to harm my son." At this point, Ailia is perplexed, "You're Evander's father?" Yes, I am, and as Hay drew closer to attack Ailia, she transformed from her normal state into a fierce werewolf. They quickly engaged in combat, but Hay is taken aback by Ailia's strength; he stood up and said, "Why should I be surprised? You took after your father after all," before Hay grabbed Ailia by the neck and she grabbed him by the neck as they struggled to kill one another, Hay became surprised that after everything he had tried to do to Ailia she is able to help him out and then Hay made a something like a circle with the fire from his mouth and then went through it and the circle dissipated. This is all before Ailia is able to throw Hay to the other side of a cliff where he almost fell. Then when Ailia saw that he is going to fall down the cliff she ran quickly to help him out and she is able to draw him out Ailia thought, "I'm going to hurt him," and then she wondered, "How did he know that I'm like this, how did he find out all of this, and Evander has promised me that he would introduce me to his parents next week because his father is out of town, which means his father lied to him to get to know me or plan to kill me instead." All of these thoughts were going through Ailia's head, and she is shocked by what she had just learned about Evander's father.

A few minutes later, she had to go home as a werewolf because her clothes were already there as usual. When she got home, she had to change in the garden where she had snicked and went right into her room and put on another cloth, but she didn't tell her parents about any of this because she is afraid that they wouldn't approve of her and Evander being together if they knew about Evander dad, so she kept it a secret from them.

Chapter Ten

The Longest Journey

When Logan arrived home that evening, he had already transformed from Hay to Logan. However, before entering his room, he first checked on Evander, who is sound sleeping. When he arrived in his room, he is quite dejected and asked himself, "What have I done?" Thank goodness Ailia is there to save me, even though I knew I wouldn't die. She proved to me that she is a very good person by helping me out there even though she knew I is going to kill her, proving to me that I is wrong about her. Now that I have cleared up my misunderstanding with her, I will help Evander and Ailia become better people. and then he slept off until Evander came the next morning to wake him up Evander muttered, "I wonder what's wrong with me. I slept off and I had a really bad dream," as he sat next to Logan on the bed. I have certain secrets that I can't disclose to you or anybody else, Logan, and the thing that made me afraid of this dream is that I is harming Ailia in it, and she knew about my secret, but I is still going to hurt her. Then Logan interrupted and said, "It's just a dream, Evander. Don't worry about it. You were very tired last night, and I know you got some rest. Just freshen up and go see Ailia. Then, I'm sure your mood will be better. Go on." Evander then smiled once more, stood up, and turned to face Logan, saying, "Thanks, buddy. I'm so glad we're friends. I appreciate it a lot." When Evander turned around and left, he said, "I'm sorry Evander, I took your spirit last night. You weren't dreaming it happened. You were just unconscious and being unconscious made you think it's a dream. Forgive me Evander, I almost hurt the love of your life last night. I'm so glad I didn't. And as for your secret, I know about it. I'm sure Ailia will accept you without a problem. because your souls will be connected soon that's my promised to you both and the only enemy you have is Martinez my son every single mintues he his plotting what next to do and once his soul his awaken fro where i tied it at he will return that is why i must be very fast in getting you and Ailia united so you both can end Martinez without turning into evil, then he added yes Martinez your soul is with me because i took it that very night we had a fight thankfukly you taught i only found just the life span but you weren't aware i got something else that will make me get your soul and stop you for some while this mystery is not known to you because you are evil from the onset and you didn't look for other things than just the life span thankfully i didn't rush out of that cave after i got my life span if not all of this won't be possible, juat wait Martinez even your own very daughter wouldn't turn evil just as Evander would not, your daughter Ailia didn;t take after you am very happy for her and then Logan looked at the wall clock and rushed into tge bathing room to freshen up and afterwards joined Evander who is calling out for him and they both went straight to see Ailia.

Ailia is deep in taught when her phone rang and then she saw an incoming call from Evander she is surprised and wanted to speak rudely to him but she quickly realized it'sn't Evander last night but his dad so she picked and spoke nicely and then they agreed that they would meet at a restaurant and then she dress up and went straight down after she finished talking to Evander on the phone when she got to the restaurant she saw Evander who walked straight towards and kissed her cheeks and then she had to smile and she is happy to see him and then she hugged him and Evander is surprised she hugged him in such a way that she is scared for him or something then he asked her are you okay Ailia? Then Ailia got herself up and said yes I have just missed you that's all, then he smiled and then walked her to the table where Logan is seated but he had to pretend he hasn't met Ailia before so when Evander introduced Ailia to Logan, he stood up and shook hands with her and she is happy to finally meet Logan that Evander and some students had been talking about so in no time the three sat down and they discussed and Ailia liked Logan because he is very cute and then Ailia said to Evander no wonder you like Logan I like him and Logan is happy and then Ailia noticed something about Logan, which is his eyes and then she said to the two of them why do I feel as if I have melt Logan before I.... And then Evander interrupted maybe you are right with these words Evander said (Logan is shocked and afraid) but it's not what Logan is thinking then Evander said it's possible in school you both might have to melt each other and by the way Logan is one popular guy you know, everyone at the university likes him and then Logan breathes out and Ailia said yes that's possible and they continued their discussion.

Chapter Eleven

Almost Lost It All

When Ailia got home that night she is very tired and she got a bit worried because Evander promised her after they find from the restaurant that she would meet with his parents next weekend that his dad is back and she said to herself I can't believe I will meet with Evander's dad the second time and now in human form then she added I wonder how it's will go but one thing I know is that once I see him and I get a chance to be alone with him I would warn him to stay away from me that I would never harm Evander and then she said I have to control myself, how do I tell Evander that his father his my enemy? I need to take it slow and it all depends on how he reacts when he sees me this weekend and then she sleeps off...

Cohen is done with the ALC chemical but he has to test it on the rat he got for the experiment when he used the ALC on the rat he got, there isn't any reaction and then he realized there is more work he needs to do, so he can help his daughter though he isn't happy he felt disappointed and then he didn't tell Lesya so she won't get worried.

So days later Evander decided to see with Ailia parents so he shared this with Logan who became scared because to Evander he is visiting Ailai's parents for the first time but Logan knows that Ailia's parent would be seen Evander for the second time so he got the idea to convince him to behave with Ailia's parents as if he has met them before and the idea didn't go well with Evander but he decided to go with Logan's idea to behave as if he has met with Ailia's parents before so he Ailia's parent's will believe that Ailia and him share so much connection together and this will make her parents notice that Ailia has said a lot about them to him according to Logan idea and then Evander agreed and when he got to Ailia's house he did according to how Logan had advised him and Evander is surprised because Ailia's parents behave well with him, they didn't behave as if they were seeing him for the first time and Evander said to himself Logan is right thankfully I heeded to Logan's advice and Ailia that is worried that Evander is meeting her parents for the first time realized that everything well, so has Ailia is seeing Evander out, Evander told Ailia that all he did there tonight is Logan's idea to behave with her parents as if it's isn't the first time he is seeing them and then Ailia is surprised and asked Evander why Logan asked him to behave like that and then Evander said I don't know Ailia but am sure it's because he is familiar with all of this thing because of the story he told me about his parents how his dad behave with his mom's parents when he met them for the first time, he said his dad behaved as if it's isn't the first time he is meeting them and then they liked his dad and believed his mom and dad shared a very strong bond by his mom telling his dad about his parents so Evander added that according to Logan he said it's called the parents test to their future son in law and I can see it's worked with your parents Ailia, they seem cool with I am afraid they won't like it that I behave with them as if it's isn't the first time I am meeting them and it's worked Ailia and then Ailia breath out and said to herself am so thankful Logan with your idea if not for your idea Evander would have so many questions for me right now and then she got herself and walked Evander straight to his car and then they called it a day.

The day came for Ailia to meet with Evander's parents and Ailia is nervous but she is just targeting Evander's dad, so then Evander took Ailia home and when they got inside the house she melted his mom Liliana. who is happy to see Ailia and Ailia realized she is meeting Liliana for the second time after the incident from the store and then they hugged each other and she welcomed her in, when she saw Mr. Jack Wills Ailia is almost losing it because of what happened at the forest then she said to herself look at him, and then Evander introduced Ailia to his dad who is happy to see her and he shook hands with her but Ailia is angry deep down she had to force a smile and they both sat down on the dinner and they ate together and then Mr. Jack Ailia some questions that she answered joyfully but deep down she is still angry because she remembered how he hitted her hard at the forest and then she is waiting to have an opportunity with him alone so she can pour out her anger and then Liliana asked Evander to come to the kitchen with her so they can bring more food to the table and then Ailia said to them good i will talk with Mr. Jack here as well and then when they left for the kitchen Ailia waited till they walked away from them and then she looked at Jack who look at her and smiled and then he looked away and then Ailia spoke up and said to Jack who do you think you are? You almost killed me the last time, how do you think I will harm Evander am in love with him and then Ailia is surprised that Jack is sitting down smiling and he isn't talking and then she stood up and went close to touch him, before she went closer another person who looks like Jack came out of him and Ailia is shocked when she saw that jack turned into two in front of her eyes, then immediately one of the Jack held her hand and they appeared in an unknown place and then Ailia forcefully removed her hand from jack's hand and then she pushed him to the floor and she asked him where is this place? Why are you doing all of this am not going to hurt Evander I love him and am ready to even fight for him then jack interrupted I know you love him, and I didn't bring you here to fight you or something I brought you here to thank you and apologize for misunderstanding you all along I is just scared and I wanted Evander to be safe, Ailia spoke up and asked to protect Evander from what? Because it's looks like Evander as an enemy which is not me the way you are sounding Mr jack and then Jack spoke up am not Jack Ailia and before he could finish talking he transformed into Logan immediately and then Ailia is shocked and she asked what Logan what happening and then Logan explained everything to Ailia including the story behind the Dellhollow world and he added Evander knows about all of this and he his under the infleunce of Martinez and he believes everything he teels him because he his in search of you Ailia but he doesn;t know thatbthe love of his life his Martinez daughter who wants to turn him evil and then Ailia is surprised with everything Hay told her and she said to him, you aren't alone Logan we are in this together and then Ailia spoke up how did you do this Logan what's happening at Evander's place and then he Laughed and said i have used my super power to slow the time there so no one knows what's happening and don't worry Jack won't remember what you said to him when he is conscious once we appear back everything will start again and then Ailia is happy that Evander too isn't human and she said all my fears are gone once he finds out at the right time he would be okay with it.

Chapter Twelve

Incredibly Jealous

Logan and Ailia then return back to Evander house, Suddenly everything becomes normal again Later on, Jack and Ailia were sitting down quietly waiting for Evander and Liliana to come back to meet them at the dinning and then they enjoyed themselves and they called it a day. weeks later Logan asks Evander and Ailia to spend the day together in the school library reading just so he could spend time with Ailia this is because Logan Hay now likes Ailia because she is very kind and then as they were together something mysterious happened which lead Logan to snap his fingers and it's turned out that the time went slow again because Logan sensed that everything isn't right so he tapped Ailia who came out of time but Evander isn't able to come out of time because Logan didn't tap him and then Ailia asked Logan what is going? He explain to Ailia that some demons inside Martinez his coming to fight him because as the day is going by Martinez his struggling to come back so has Logan is still talking to Ailia a demon appeared to fight Logan and then they became plenty and then Ailia took her form and help Logan fight them, and the both of them succeded in defeating them and then after the fight Logan and Ailia took their human form and then Ailia asked Logan if there is something she can do to help him out and then Logan said to Ailia we have to jounery down to the cave of mysteries and then from there we will need to go to the Dellhollow world where i would get the golden staff that Evander would use to defeat Martinez and then he added but i am limited because i can't go to the Dellhollow world i can only get to the cave of mystries that is the only place am limited to be and then Ailia asked Logan then what do we do and then he said only you and Evander can go to the cave of mystries and Dellhollow world but since Evander doesn't know all of this am glad he doesn't because if he goes to the Dellhollow world his life would be in danger why because the Halollow world will be drawing him back to him because of the power base and that is Martinez plan he wants him to go to the Halollow world so he can turn him Evander and bring him out of the cave of mysteries and then build armies that would destroy humanity just like his fore-fathers did all of this is the reason why Evander mustn't know about this world Ailia we must do everything in our power to bring everything that will save him to earth not him going into that world because it's dangerous he will never recover if he comes face to face with the pool of power(power base for evil minds) when Logan finished talking Ailia said to him that she is ready to go and get everything so she can save Evander and so they would be able to defeat Martinez and save humanity and in no time after their discussion Logan snapped his fingers and everything went back to normal and then Evander asked Ailia who had missed her step while coming from the restroom if she is okay and then she nodded and looked at Logan's direction and then he smiled at her, but Evander took notice and he is jealous and then Evander became cold towards Ailia when they were done from the restaurant Logan started walking beside Ailia while Evander went more closer and walked in the middle putting his hands around Ailia's shoulder and then she looked at Evander smiling and he did same with him.

The next day at school Logan and Evander is together at the cafeteria and before they knew it Olivia George a beautiful charming young lady at the university walked in she is popular because she hardly talk to guys but for the first time when she saw Logan she is attracted to him and then when she noticed that Logan is inside cafeteria she walked in and decided to say hello to him and she introduced herself well it's not the first time it's happening each time Evander and Logan is together and this is why Evander is insecure when Ailia is smiling at Logan, Evander is always not worried when other girls comes to Logan and sometimes he tease him but this time around he isn't happy because he noticed Ailia too as started liking Logan and then it's makes him feel bad when Olivia finished talking to Logan, Logan is expecting Evander to tease him as usual but he is quiet the whole time and then Logan asked him if he is okay, and Evander nodded his head and he is looking too serious but Logan handle him that he had no choice but to laugh at the end of the day and as he did Evander phone rang and when he saw the in coming call his smile wioed off then he picked the call and walked pass

Logan who is also laughing and he stopped when Evander excused himself and when Evander picked the call Ailia voice came into his ears and then she said;

Ailia; Hello Sweetie, how are you doing?

Evander; smiling am fine, and you?

Ailia; Am okay where are you? am missing you

Evander; Am at the cafeteria i and.....

Ailia: Are you with Logan, can I come over?

Evander: No Ailia i will come and check on you don't worry we are leaving already just wait for me i will be at your place it's possible we go out tonight okay

Ailia; it's fine then my regards to Logan i will chat him up later

Evander: Alright see you soon bye

Ailia; Bye Sweetie

When they were done talking Evander is happy he didn't allow Ailia to come down because he is very jealous and he believes once Ailia and Logan sees each they would abandon him and start talking with each other and Evander isn't comfortable with it, so he went back to meet Logan and then they went back home.

Chapter Thirteen

The Magical Emerald Staff

Logan and Ailia's closeness, and Ailia stopped paying him the same amount of attention. Logan needed to be with Ailia so he could prepare her for the journey to the Dellhollow world, and in no time, he is able to teach her some things she might encounter on the way. He also taught her how she would need to change some forms so she won't awaken some of the dead vampires in the Dellhollow world, and Even though he is terrified for Ailia but kept it a secret, he tried his hardest to warn her to avoid the Halloway world at all costs. Martinez is growing stronger by the minute, so he had to do everything in his power to obtain the emerald staff from the Dellohollow world so Evander could use it to defeat Martinez.

As a result, one day, Evander, Ailia, and Logan went to a coffee shop. Evander told Ailia and Logan that he would get them coffee, and as he entered the establishment, Logan and Ailia began conversing. As they continued to converse, Ailia noticed Logan is looking worried, so she approached him and patted him on the shoulder to reassure him that everything would be okay. When Evander emerged from the coffee shop, he is holding three cups of coffee in his hands. And then just so Evander could remind Logan that Ailia is his girlfriend he kissed Ailia, Logan's eyes were wide open, and he grinned as he shook his head and Evander is pleased that Ailia didn't push him away. When the time came for Ailia and Logan to journey down to the cave of mysteries so that Ailia could access the Dellhollow world from there, Ailia asked Logan how Evander will not notice her not being around and with her parents as well so Logan responded to Ailia by saying that everything will happen at her house and that Evander won't know this and then Evander doesn't that Logan isn't interested in Ailia at all. While Ailia told her parents that Evander wanted to visit and spend time with her, she called Evander and said that her parents wanted to meet with him and that he should bring Logan along the plan didn't work out for Evander, so he decided not to tell Logan that he is going to meet Ailia's parents. At that point, Logan learned that Evander is jealous of him, so he decided to put a call through to Ailia and tell her that he wouldn't come with Evander, that he would go to her house on his own and she shouldn't bother to ask.

So when Logan saw Evander getting ready, he decided to play along with him by asking where he is going. When Evander replied that he is going to see Ailia's parents, Logan said he would like to come along. However, Evander told him that Ailia's parents wanted only him to come, so Logan said, "Just tell me you just want to spend some time with Ailia all alone, right?" Evander grew quiet and as he is about to speak, Logan interrupted it's okay Evander, I understand and Logan left Evander's side. Evander felt bad and he is feeling bad but he shook off the mood and went straight to Ailia's house and her parents welcomed him. While Logan went later and then appeared at Ailia's room and then he put a call through to Ailia that he is in her room, When Ailia heard what Logan said on phone, she excused herself from Evander and her parents when Ailia got to her room she saw Logan and They both laughed as Logan said, "I can't believe Evander is insecure thinking that I might take you away from him and he doesn't realize that I am doing that right now." Then, as usual, Logan snapped his fingers, and the two vanished before reappearing at the cave of mysteries, where Ailia exclaimed, "Wow!"

The cave of wonders is located here. When Logan said, "Smart girl," Ailia shouted because she didn't recognize him but is only hearing his voice. She is about to respond when he said, "You shouldn't be surprised; I already told you about this." Then she recalled that Logan had previously told her that she wouldn't see him when they arrived at the Cave of Mysteries; instead, she would only hear his voice. She, therefore, remembered that only Logan's voice she would hear in the Cave of Mysteries. Ailia recalled that Logan had explained to her how she would travel to DWorld. As she is about to leave, Logan urged her not to forget what she had been told and to take care of herself. Ailia responded with a smile, "Yes, I will," adding, "See you soon, Logan," and then she left the cave of mysteries.

As Logan had predicted, she encountered a variety of unfamiliar creatures along the way, but she is able to transform into different personas as she is instructed, so she is able to flee quickly and arrive at the Dellhollow world without being surprised. She proceeded straight to the leader's cabin, where the golden staff is kept and is relieved that she had succeeded in doing so. As she took a step forward, an alarm rang, and some vampires who had been dormant for a very long time were suddenly awakened. Then she said "I neglected to transform into the specific shape of the vampires that won't awaken the remainder of the vampire that is murdered. So "On Ailia's breast is written "THE CHILD OF HALLOWAY," which refers to an adversary they had been unable to vanquish for centuries, causing all of the vampires to awaken, leaving Ailia confused and out of ideas. She then began speaking in English but is startled to discover that a different language is coming out of her mouth when she did so. She is telling the vampires in English that she had come in peace when another word suddenly came out, which left Ailia confused. She is unaware that the vampires speak in their language, but when they said to her, "You killed us and you come in peace. You're a liar. We will exact our revenge on you to teach the others a lesson," Ailia thought to herself, "Logan didn't tell me this would happen. What do I do?" As the vampires appeared to be closing in on her, she looked down at her body and realized she hadn't taken the vampire form. She immediately remembered she had taken their form, and she is surprised when all the vampires collapsed and went back to sleep. She then said to herself, "It's all my fault; I forgot to take the vampire form," and she immediately went to get the golden staff. She then vanished as she made her way back to the cave of mysteries, Even Logan is unaware that even Ailia's ancestors could be awake on her journey, so as Ailia is approaching the cave of mysteries, she saw her mother and father waving to her from a distance and is startled. She stopped to see and then walked straight to go check if what she saw is real and she is carried away. it'sn't her fault. How is this possible, she added? Then Ailia stopped and is startled when Cohen remarked, "Hey honey, it's me," to which she responded, "I could be incorrect, it's just my imagination." Cohen then stepped forward to where she is standing, and she is stunned as he is speaking up. I miss you so much honey, Lesya interrupted, which caused Ailia to become perplexed and wonder how this is possible. Her heart melted at the sound of her mother's voice, and when Lesya hugged her, she realized it'sn't Lesya. She then tried to push her away from her when Martinez suddenly appeared, shocking her and saying, "You are Martinez you..." Ailia is surprised when Martinez said "helping humanity" then she said "no you are lying Logan's the one helping humanity not you and there is nothing you say that would make me hear you out, you might be my father but you are evil" and then Martinez said "your father I am your father and that is your mother and (Martinia) your presence brought her back and your presence has to awaken me from Hay's trap now we'll destroy his plans and bring help to humanity" and then Martinez said Ailia said, "No way you're lying," to which Martinez replied, "Hay told you all of that and you believed him, he's lying to you so he can use the golden staff and become strong." At that point, Martinez manipulated a vision and presented it to Ailia. (Ailia is unaware that he is a vision manipulator. Ailia believed Martinez because of the incorrect vision he showed her, and Martinez is able to get some liquid from Ailia's blood into a bottle and get a few drops of liquid from the power base (pool of power), lying to her that he will use it to defeat Hay before he vanished without noticing Ailia. Logan didn't remember telling Ailia all of this, and he didn't know Ailia would come in contact with Martinez since he thought he is still in captivity. And when they vanished, Ailia got up, ran after them, and made it into the cave of mysteries. When she arrived there, Logan is waiting for her, and when he saw her there, he is happy and didn't even wait for her to speak.

Chapter Fourteen

An Epic Battle

They vanished and went straight to earth, appearing in Ailia's room. Logan is then happy and hugged her, but out of excitement, Ailia is sad, and Logan noticed so he asked Ailia what is wrong. Logan is shocked when Ailia said "I'm sorry, I made a mistake," and he later added, "All of this isn't your fault, Martinez has escaped and he's back, and he knows how to manipulate visions." Logan then added, "We have the staff, we would defeat him," and as he moved forward, he noticed something isn't right with Ailia and inquired as to what else had transpired. Ailia then said, "He made me test human blood Logan and I don't know how I'm feeling right now." Logan responded, "Don't worry. We must hurry to stop Martinez." The golden staff then contained what appeared to be a cap, which he opened and brought what appeared to be a capsule. When Ailia asked what it's, Logan replied, "It's like an antidote. The human blood you test right now wouldn't work on you immediately. You haven't even turned evil don't worry but if you don't take this pill you'll feel like testing human blood again, but that won't happen because the pill you just ingested will kill the urge even if it comes you will be able to suppress it and then Ailia hugged Logan and he didn't realize he had accidentally snapped his fingers so Evander walked straight into Ailia's room along with her parents and they saw how Ailia hugged Logan and Evander misunderstood everything, while Ailia's parents were perplexed to see Ailia so close to Logan and they wondered when Logan entered Ailia's room. When Evander noticed this, he didn't even wait for an explanation before he left, looking into Logan's eyes and feeling betrayed. When Ailia called out his name, he didn't respond, while Logan promised Ailia that everything would be okay and he ran after him right away. Before Logan would have run to catch up with Evander He sped off infuriated.

Logan is already inside the house when Evander arrived home, shocking him. He yelled, "You betrayed how dare you touch my girlfriend? I knew you had eyes for her and I did everything in my power to get that taught off your mind. I love her man and you disgust me so much that you were ready to sleep with my girlfriend. Both of you are betrayers and I hate you both!"

Then Hay said, "I know you won't believe me so I have something with me that would open your eyes that you are a Dellhollow, not Martinez son," and then he pulled out the golden staff and threw it at Evander the staff entered his body and everything is revealed to him. At this point, Evander is shocked and Hay said, "Had it been you listened to me the very night I told you that Martinez is lying to you, at least all of this won't happen. I am trying to protect you from him." He learned everything, except for the identity of Martinez's daughter "Ailia"

So Ailia knows that I am like this, no wonder the two of them were so close because Hay couldn't share anything with him. I misunderstood everything, Evander said before getting up and getting ready to face Hay. Evander is shocked because he now knew the truth. He is ashamed and as he gathered the strength to go hug Hay, Martinez appeared and Hay said I told Ailia everything about you while Martinez held Hay's neck and disappeared with him.

The night before the fight, Evander started feeling bad for not believing his father Hay that night, and then he became enraged. He had to fight Martinez not just for himself but also for Logan's sake Hay is father whom Martinez has held captive and then he regreted trusting him the whole time, so before the fight he went straight to meet with Ailia whom he explained things to her that Logan told him everything that she is aware that he is a vampire and then Ailia is surprised that Logan told him everything but as Evander is explaining she noticed he doesn't know about her, so she is tired her best to hide the truth of who she is from Evander and also she is afraid because she knows if she reveal the whole truth to Evander that Martinez is able to make her taste the blood of an human being he would hate him the more and not spare him but kill him once he found his father and the chance of beeinging with Evander will go down the drain because Martinez is the only one who has the solution on how she can become normal again another lied Martinez told her in hours time before Evander came to her and then Evander hugged Ailia and he tried several times to kiss her but she didn't allow him because she is afraid Evander would find out that she is not the same Ailia he fell in love with so Evander gave up since he is sad and in no time he left her alone and went to look for Martinez.

Martinez is in the forest when Evander arrived, calling out to him repeatedly but he didn't respond because he is trying to observe Evander's behavior. Martinez is shocked to see Evander calling for him angrily, and one of his superpowers—which Martinez had never seen before—then came into play as a result of the fact that Evander is so enraged with anger that his body couldn't contain it any longer. When his blood turned green instead of red, he is able to perceive things differently. As a result, his body system altered, allowing him to see the Haloway world for the first time in a new way. He then saw the vision of the generations before.

He is able to see how it all began, but he had trouble holding his head because the vision is coming to him too quickly. After some time, he got up and walked straight towards Martinez, who is sitting comfortably and watching what Evander is doing. Martinez didn't realize that Evander had been watching him, so when he saw Evander approaching him, he is shocked and confused. Martinez spoke forward after hearing Evander ask him this inquiry and enquired, "How is this possible?" No living person can view this world, the cave of mysteries no human can see anyone except voices, Evander is in the cave of mysteries but he doesn't know, How did you? Martinez proudly said, "You must know that I am your father since you can see me." When Evander spoke up, he said, "You aren't my father even though I slept in The Power Base for some time doesn't make me your son. I only have one father and that is Hay who you took captive and I am ready to fight you with everything inside of me." Martinez laughed and said, "So what Evander I made you and I can as well destroy you, and then he said Ailia is my daughter, and I know you love her dearly. I know you won't fight me, and you won't want to either because you won't want to see Ailia in pain. Then, bewildered, Evander questioned Ailia, "Your daughter?"

Then Martinez laughed and said, "I'm sure she didn't tell you anything even Hay didn't get to tell you the truth right, yes Ailia is my daughter and I connected her soul with mine just so I will be saved. Evander asked, "Your daughter," and Martinez replied, "Am sure you love Ailia my daughter you won't fight me and you won't want to either because you love Ailia so much right and you won't want to see her in pain right." And then Evander asked in pain what do you mean? I note that Ailia did not inform you, and even if she had, how would she understand the seriousness of what she had done?

It's unfortunate because.... Evander then interrupted Martinez and questioned, "What are you trying to say?" What will Ailia be telling me? I won't fall for any of your tricks, so don't think I will. Martinez burst into fits of uncontrollable laughter and remarked, "You think I'll just sit around and watch you get to the last stage of being as powerful as you are now and I'll fold my hands and I won't find ways to secure my safety first. For your information, I made Ailia taste human blood and she is now connected to me, meaning that if you hit me or do anything to me, Ailia will get it too." Evander interrupted, "No way," to which Martinez replied, "Yes I..... As soon as Martinez said, "I have Hay," he added, "and until you are ready to become my son and use your powers to create armies of the Holloway and you bring me back to life, I will not release Hay to you." He continued, "I have waited for this for centuries; I am not ready to give up easily." Martinez also said, "Even if your superpowers have reached the final stage, you can't hurt me."

Chapter Fifteen

Sources of Strength

When Martinez left Ailia on the university's roof, Evander is worried that she might fall. As soon as he realized that Ailia is in danger, he flew to the roof where Martinez had cut Ailia's hand. When he arrived, Evander moved faster than ever before, thinking that Ailia is in pain. However, when he put his hand on her palm, he discovered that Ailia isn't in pain. Instead Ailia and Evander transformed to their different form and their soul is connected because of Evander and Ailia blood that touched each other and then their eyes turned red and they flew higher to the sky where they were floating mean while Martinez is happy dancing thinking his plan to turn both them evil had worked not knowing some unusual has taken place while Hay soul Activated and then he opened his eyes and saw Evander and Ailia flying down from the sky while Martinez happiness began to wipe off because he saw Evander and Ailia holding hands, he is in shock and he became angry and wanted to move closer to them while Hay held him from behind when he saw Hay he is shocked and he asked him how his this possible? I have captured your spirit and you have returned to the cave of mysteries then he added what's happening? Hay replied because you all your effort went down the drain Martinez, i is just playing along Martinez so that Evander and Ailia soul would connect,

A forbidden love between Evander and Ailia will now help future generations, and never again will the vampires and the werewolf hurt anyone, so that their union would become your defeat and in the end the Dellhollow world would get the justice it deserves for destroying the world in the past. Now that the vampires and the were-wolf have united, and all of your retribution has brought you nothing Martinez, you fail in the end, and then when Evander and Ailia went into each other, Martinez felt confused because sometimes when he looked at them to want to attack them, he saw Evander and other times he saw Ailia. At that point, Martinez is furious and he pushed Hay and ran quickly to meet up with them, so The two of them, Evander and Ailia, bravely clutched one another's hands and plunged into each other as they did so.

It took some time for Martinez to figure out Evander and Ailia's tricks, but once he did, he decided to throw at them the small bottle he had used to retrieve the liquid from the power base. When he did, Martinez is relieved and confident that he still had a chance, but to his greatest surprise, Evander and Ailia only emerged from each other so that they became two instead of one, When Martinez went nearer to Evander, he questioned, "You don't simply know when to quit right?" as Evander became furious, Martinez stated, "I am your father. You would kill me?", Evander replied angrily, "I am not your son and I will never be," and continued, "I would have loved to be the one to kill you but I will put everything in Ailai's hands to accomplish." And then Martinez thought he could manipulate Ailia once more when he decided to turn around and look at her, but Ailia already had the golden staff. Martinez begged for mercy, but Ailia ignored him and instead inserted the staff into his body. Before his spirit vanished, he said to Ailia, "You killed your very own father," to which she responded, "I will do it a million times to save humanity instead of destroying it, and then Hay is watching from a distance, delighted that he had been able to prevent Evander and Ailia from turning evil, and he said, "I'm so glad all of this happened." Evander and Ailia hugged him, and he told them, "My lifespan has passed, but I will always watch you from the cave of mysteries, and I'm sure you will help generations never to go evil. With all of this, I'm now the leader at the cave of mysteries." Martinez vanished, and Martinez missed it, and then Evander stood up and said to his father, "He deserves it, Dad. You deserve to be the leader because it's always intended for you to lead." Evander also said, "I'll miss you, Logan." Ailia and Evander watched as Hay vanished in front of them as they laughed, and they then headed back to their house.

When Ailia arrived home, Cohen and Lesya were in tears, not knowing that Ailia would make it back home. When Cohen saw Ailia, he went straight to her and they hugged along with Lesya, Ailia said to Cohen, "There is no need for me to hide everything from Evander dad, because he knows about me," and then she explained everything to them and they were very happy for both of them.

After graduating from the university, Evander and Ailia were married and had a son, Logan, whom they named after Hay since they thought he had returned. This is true, but they were unaware that Hay had returned with their new baby boy until they discovered the infant had some of their superpowers.

The world is aware of Logan Evander, the son of Evander and Ailia, who later became an inventor, when he is eighteen years old. Logan utilized his talent to design several innovations that aided the human species, and they lived happily ever after.
